

A photograph of a modern building with a curved glass facade. A red outline highlights a specific section of the building's exterior, including the curved glass facade and the ground floor. The building has multiple stories with large windows. In the foreground, there are trees and a large, abstract, metallic sculpture. The ground floor features a curved entrance with glass doors and windows, and several American flags are displayed. The red outline follows the curve of the building's facade and extends to the ground level.
