Close to one in five employed residents works in mining, oil and gas extraction, or quarrying industries. Economic BedRock is a very rural, primarily Southern market. Married-couple families reside in over half of the households, with a quarter of households that live in mobile homes. This socially conservative group earns a living working with their hands. In addition to mining, construction and agriculture are common industries for employment. They take pride in the appearance of their homes and their vehicles. Budget-minded residents enjoy home cooking, but nothing too fancy. This is a gregarious group that values time spent with friends.

- Residents tend to shop at club stores and make purchases using online platforms
- Spending centers around children, including clothing, medicine, toys, and entertainment. Residents pay for garden maintenance, home cleaning, and pet care services.
- They tend to purchase internet-connectable televisions, all-in-one printers, home security systems, smart thermostats, and lighting systems.
- Budgeted vacations are taken within the US, not abroad.

Savvy Suburbanites

3,269 (15.4%) of households

Open space, undeveloped land, and farmland characterize Rural Bypasses. These families live within small towns along country back roads and enjoy the open air in these sparsely populated neighborhoods. Their country lifestyle focuses on the outdoors, gardening, hunting, and fishing. They are more likely to own a satellite dish than a home computer. Although most households do have a connection to the internet, use is very limited. Those who are not yet retired work in blue-collar jobs in the agriculture or manufacturing industries.

- Residents frequently use credit cards, and they seldom have outstanding monthly balances.
- They tend to invest a significant amount of resources on home improvement and landscaping. Residents have a variety of investment and retirement accounts.
- Households tend to have access to cell phones and the internet to stay connected.
- Residents tend to engage with their communities through fundraising and local politics. Vacation destinations often include beaches and national parks.
